

CHALLENGE YOURSELF! LEARN A NEW SKILL

Art Therapy Class

“You never know until you are inspired to try.”

—Catherine

Catherine Lemoine

Learn to Paint with Instructor Catherine Lemoine

Creating art is a wonderful way to access a meditative state of mind and the deep healing it brings. Learn from Catherine as she teaches participants the techniques she uses in her paintings using the above as models.

Mission Hope Cancer Center, Conference Room

1325 East Church Street, Santa Maria

The class seating is limited; RSVP to Ashley Hahn at 805-346-3402

Wednesday, April 7, 2021

10:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The class will learn how to paint the ocean image above

Wednesday, April 21, 2021

10:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The class will learn how to paint the sunflower image above

Make art to help melt your stress away...

Mission Hope is pleased to offer this exciting class series designed to introduce patients and caregivers to the diverse world of art. The class each month will feature a different medium presented by a skilled artist. Join us to learn imaginative techniques to help boost your creative expression. All supplies are provided.

An award-winning artist, Catherine is active in Arts Obispo, El Camino Art Assoc., Central Coast Watercolor Society, and teaches art at the SLO Museum of Art and at Gala de Arte Nipomo. She has been a demonstrating artist at Allan Hancock College for ‘Plein Air’ painting. Catherine is happy to share her passion for the visual arts and the fascination of creating an image that causes emotion to another person with her students.

Like us on Facebook:

Mission Hope
Cancer Center

